

ARTS ATTACK 2008!

T

he Summer Arts School at Bridgewater High School Arts College is back... We're inviting young people in Warrington to participate in one of our two fun-packed weeks. This year, we will go on a journey around the world. Using Myths and Legends from India, China, South America and Africa as our theme for both age groups. Opportunity will be provided for you to learn new skills and to develop skills you already have within the Arts.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Week One

July 21st - July 25th 2008
(For Young People aged 12 - 16)
10am - 3pm

"Around the World"

This summer, allow yourself to travel around the world by taking traditional myths from a variety of countries and creating from them an innovative piece of Performing Arts. As with previous years, our senior pupils will be able to use the stimulus provided by our Arts College staff to devise theatre, compose music and choreograph dance. You will be given the opportunity to work with new people in a fun way. So come and give it a go!

Week Two

July 28th - August 1st 2008
(For children aged 7 - 11)

"Around the World"

Four groups, four scenes, four dances, four songs and what do you have..? Junior Summer Arts School!!! This year we will be globe-trotting to explore some of the most artistic cultures our world has to offer! As with previous years, you will be led by professional staff in their specific field to produce a collective performance in just one week. If you think you have what it takes, we will see you there!
